Press Release

Subject: Yolo County Sheriff's Office Employees Recognized

Contact: Sheriff E.G. Prieto 530-668-5280

Date: March 26, 2014

On Tuesday, March 25, 2014, five current Yolo County Sheriff's Office employees were recognized for serving the county for 25 years each. The ceremony was conducted by the Yolo County Board of Supervisors at the Erwin W. Meier Administration Building in Woodland.

Recognized at this ceremony were Undersheriff Tom Lopez, Captain Larry Cecchetti, and Lieutenants Martin Torres, Dave Rademaker and Tina Day – all whom were hired as line staff in 1988. "I know these folks have been here a long time, but to stand here today with such a small group that represents over 125 years of combined service is quite humbling" said Sheriff Ed Prieto, a 45 year veteran himself of law enforcement. "It was great to help recognize these employees today. You'll notice each one has risen to a high-ranking position in our organization. This goes to show you the level of dedication each of them has demonstrated over their long careers" Prieto said.
