This Personal History Statement will be used as a basis for a background investigation. The information will be used as an aid in assessing your suitability as a civilian volunteer with our Office. Therefore, it is important that the questionnaire be filled out completely, accurately and legibly. All statements are subject to verification. The information you provide will not be the only factor for determining whether you will be allowed or denied the opportunity to volunteer in the Sheriff's Office.

Print statements legibly. Fill in all spaces. If a question does not apply to you, write the letters DNA (does not apply) in the space provided for the answer. If the space provided is inadequate, add another page of the same size paper and identify information by questionnaire title.
