The eviction process is a three-step procedure. The following information is a general outline of each step.

LANDLORD'S NOTICE

A Landlord's Notice provides legal notice of intent to a tenant(s).

FORMS:

- Available at most office supply stores. (There are several types. Choose the one that applies to your situation)

SERVICE:

Consult an Attorney, the Landlord/Tenant handbook at any Yolo County Law Library or the Superior Court website www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp for information on serving your Landlord Notice. Note: The Sheriff's Office fee for this service is $40.00 per person.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT FOR UNLAWFUL DETAINER

A Summons and Complaint for Unlawful Detainer notifies a tenant (s) that they are being sued for restoration of the premises and any rent monies due.

FORMS:

- Available from the Court Clerk
- www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp

FILING:

Complete the Summons and Complaint, and file them with the appropriate court.

You will be required to provide the Certificate of Service and the Original Landlord's Notice at the time of filing. The court will file your complaint and issue an original summons.

SERVICE:

Consult an attorney, the Landlord/Tenant handbook at any Yolo County Law Library or the Superior Court website www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp for serving your Summons and Complaint-Unlawful Detainer. NOTE: The Sheriff's Office fee for this service is $50.00 per person. There is an additional $50.00 fee for the Pre-Judgment Claim.

WRIT OF EXECUTION POSSESSION OF REAL PROPERTY

A Writ of Execution Possession of Real Property is a Court-issued document that directs the Sheriff to evict a tenant(s).

FORMS:

- Available from the Court Clerk
- www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp

FILING:

After you have obtained a judgment against your tenant you may complete the Writ of Execution and submit it to the Court Clerk for issuance.

SERVICE:

This service MUST be done by the Sheriff. The Sheriff will need:

- Original Writ of Execution Possession of Real Property (signed and sealed) and three (3) copies (front and back)
- $180.00 per address unit (each suite, apartment, or separate unattached garage)

RECEIPT:

The workday prior to the eviction you or your contact person will receive a phone call to arrange a meeting time at the property.

At the time of the eviction, the deputy will provide you with a Receipt for Possession, restoring the property to you. KEEP THIS RECEIPT. If the tenant (s) return to the property after the eviction, please call your local police department. They will request to see your copy of the Receipt for Possession.

NOTE A Locksmith is strongly recommended to gain entry into the property. Deputies will not force entry into locked doors or attempt entry via side or rear doors or windows. The eviction process is not complete until the Deputy actually restores the possession of the property to you, even if the occupants vacate the premises prior to the Deputy's arrival. However, if you wish to cancel the eviction prior to restoration, the Plaintiff or Plaintiff's Attorney must notify our office in writing prior to the date and time of the scheduled eviction.
