In Custody Death

February 2, 2024

On February 1, 2024, a 57-year-old, white male adult was transported to the emergency room for a health-related illness. After several hours at the hospital the male passed away on February 2, 2024.

The decedent was booked into the Yolo County Jail on charges of, failure to register as a sex offender, prohibited person in possession of a firearm, prohibited person in possession of ammunition and possession of tear gas by a prohibited person. The decedent was awaiting court ordered competency hearing.

The official cause of death is still being investigated by the coroner's office. The male's identity is still being withheld until his next of kin has been notified.
